---NEW FACES

PHYLLIS STANLEY, counselor for Adult Basic Education, Tuscaloosa County Board of Education, has been named an instructor of adult basic education for the Technical Division of the College. This appointment is part-time for the 1987-88 school year. One of Mrs. Stanley's responsibilities has included the GED program offered by County Board. She has also been deeply involved with the Project PLUS now being offered in Tuscaloosa. Mrs. Stanley has been active in a number of local organizations, serving on the Holy Spirit School Board, Aglalia Women's Club and the Junior League of Tuscaloosa. She is married to Griffin Stanley and they have two children.

MISS SHELTON STATE PAGEANT SCHEDULED

The 1988 Miss Shelton State Pageant will be held Saturday, February 13, at 7 p.m. in the Junior College auditorium. The Miss Shelton State Pageant is open to any full-time or part-time student enrolled Winter quarter at either division of the college.

For more information on the Pageant, contact Lucy Kubiszyn or Sandra Day at the Junior College Division.

SARA WORKSHOP SCHEDULED

The Alabama State Fire College will sponsor a SARA workshop on November 16-17, in Tuscaloosa. This workshop will deal with Title III of the Superfund Amendments and Reauthorization Act of 1986. This program is designed for fire chiefs and other top fire department officials. However, it will be extremely useful to managers in other fields who are impacted by SARA.
